“EXCELLENCE A WAY OF LIFE”

Florence Nightingale : A Tribute

Florence Nightingale (12 May 1820 – 13 August 1910) was an English social reformer and statistician, and the founder of modern nursing. Nightingale came to prominence while serving as a manager of nurses trained by her during the Crimean War, where she organized the tending to wounded soldiers. She gave nursing a highly favorable reputation and became an icon of Victorian culture, especially in the persona of "The Lady with the Lamp" making rounds of wounded soldiers at night.

Nightingale laid the foundation of professional nursing with the establishment of her nursing school at St Thomas' Hospital in London. It was the first secular nursing school in the world, now part of King's College London. In recognition of her pioneering work in nursing, the Nightingale Pledge taken by new nurses, and the Florence Nightingale Medal, the highest international distinction a nurse can achieve, were named in her honor, and the annual International Nurses Day is celebrated around the world on her birthday 12 May. Her social reforms include improving healthcare for all sections of British society, advocating better hunger relief in India, helping to abolish laws that were over-harsh to women, and expanding the acceptable forms of female participation in the workforce.

Bhai Kanhaiya Ji : A Tribute

Bhai Kanhaiya ji (1648–1718) was a Sikh (disciple) of Guru Tegh Bahadur ji . Bhai Sahib was born in a Dhamman Khatri family of Sodhara near Wazirabad in Sialkot district (now in Pakistan). His father was a wealthy trader, but he himself being of a religious bent left home when he was still very young and roamed about with sadhus and ascetics in search of spiritual peace.

During the frequent sallies and skirmishes between the Sikhs and the enemy, Bhai Kanhaiya was often seen carrying a mashak (a sort of pouch used to carry water from one place to another), to serve water to anyone who was thirsty. He took upon the task of quenching the thirst of the wounded soldiers in the battle of Anandpur Sahib in 1704. He did this sewa with love and affection without any discrimination between the Guru's Sikh soldiers and the Mughal armies' soldiers. His act of compassion stirred up stern criticism amongst his fellow Sikhs. Bhai Kanhaiya Ji replied "Yes, my Guru, what they say is true. But Maharaj, I saw no Mughal or Sikh on the battlefield. I only saw human beings. they all have the same God's Spirit. OUR SIKH HEROES DESTROY ENEMIES BY KILLING THEM, BUT I WIN ENMITY BY GIVING THEM SERVICE."

"The best way to find yourself is to devote yourself in the service of others"
